CALL FOR SUBMISSION OF PAPERS FOR PUBLICATION

Benin Journal of Educational Studies (BJES) accepts articles of theoretical and empirical nature from all spectra of the academic community in and outside Nigeria. However, emphasis is on issues and problems that are of relevance to educational theory and practice in Nigeria in particular and Africa in general. The Journal welcomes articles in all fields of human endeavour, however the article must be relevant to contemporary educational issues and practice.

In preparing manuscripts for publication in BJES, authors should adhere to the following guide lines:

- Articles for publication are accepted throughout the year.
- Articles should be presented only on one side of the A4 typing paper and not exceed fifteen pages typewritten.
- The manuscripts should be typed double spaced and accompanied by an abstract of 100 - 150 words. The abstract should be on a separate page prefacing the article.
- Authors name, address, GSM NO and a short biographical note should be typed on a separate sheet of paper detachable from the manuscript.
- Quotations that exceed three typed lines should be extracted, indented and typed single-spaced. Shorter quotations should be enclosed in single inverted commas.
- Reference in the body of the text should be made by citing the author's surname, publication year and pagination.
- The writing style of the journal is according to the publication manual of the American Psychological Association (APA) latest format. The article must be grammatically correct and consistent in style. It must strive for simplicity and clarity of expression.

Two copies of the article (including the original) should be submitted to:

The Editor-in-Chief,
BJES, c/o Office of the Director,
Institute of Education,
University of Benin,
Ekenwan Campus,
P. M. B. 1154, Benin City,
Edo State, NIGERIA.

All Manuscripts should be submitted with assessment fee of N2,000.00 in cash or in bank draft to the Institute of Education, University of Benin.
